

National AIDS Trust 'Be Red Ribbon Inspired' Competition Terms and Conditions

1. The promoter is National AIDS Trust, a UK registered charity (297977) with its registered office at 2nd Floor, Aztec House, 397-405 Archway Road, London, N6 4EY
2. This competition is open to residents of the UK aged 18+.
3. Only one submission per participant will be accepted.
4. The brief of the competition is to design artwork inspired by the Red Ribbon – the universal symbol for HIV awareness and support. To enter, your artwork must feature a representation of the Red Ribbon. It should also reflect the values and work of National AIDS Trust.
5. Entry to the competition is free, but there is suggested donation to the charity of £10. All materials must be provided by the participant.
6. Your artwork must be submitted via email. No other method of entry will be accepted, and the image supplied must be a high-resolution jpg, jpeg, gif or png.
7. Original artwork can be produced using any visual art medium (pencil, paint, digital, sculpture etc.). However, all artwork will be judged using the image supplied. Or, in the case of sculpture, the participant may submit a video showing a 360° view of the sculpture. However, if the winning piece is sculpture, a photograph of the artwork will be used for the tote bag prize.
8. Entries must be your original work and must not be a copy of or include any image(s) or content that belong to other people, including trademarks, trade names and/or any material(s) that you do not have permission to use.
9. Any artwork submitted may be used by National AIDS Trust in future marketing activities.
10. The closing date for entries is Monday 31st August 2020. National AIDS Trust is not responsible for any entries that are lost, late or delayed.
11. We need those entering to provide a name, contact telephone number, email address and the art materials used to allow us to process your information in relation to this competition.
12. No member of staff at National AIDS Trust is permitted to enter the competition.
13. A shortlist of eligible entries will be chosen after the closing date stated in paragraph 10 by a first-round judging panel at National AIDS Trust. The judges will shortlist the entries that best fit the competition brief and show artistic talent. National AIDS Trust's decision will be final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
14. Shortlisted entries will then be sent to the final judging panel. The shortlisted artists will be notified on Thursday 3rd September. They will be invited to a Zoom call with the judging panel in the afternoon of Monday 7th September. Shortlisted artists are not required to join this call, however, if they can attend, they will get the opportunity to explain their inspiration and their artwork to the judges. The winner will be announced on Tuesday 8th September.

15. The winner will then be contacted to organise the final image to be used for the tote bag World AIDS Day product and they will receive a £500 commission for the original artwork from Paintings In Hospitals - <https://www.paintingsinhospitals.org.uk/>
16. The 2nd runner up will receive a £100 voucher from Surface View wall art – <https://www.surfaceview.co.uk/>
17. The 3rd runner up will receive a PopUp Painting voucher for 2
18. Please note due to COVID-19 tote bags may not be sent out until National AIDS Trust staff are back working in their office.
19. All prizes are non-transferable and there are no cash alternatives.
20. National AIDS Trust reserves the right to replace the prize with an alternative prize of equal or higher value if circumstances beyond the National AIDS Trust's control make it necessary to do so.
21. The winning entry may be required to send National AIDS Trust their original artwork for us to create into a tote bag design. This may include altering the artwork slightly to fit the tote bag design needs. We can then pass the artwork on to Paintings in Hospitals.
22. National AIDS Trust will contact the winner and runners up by the email or telephone number provided on entry within 24 hours of the announcement date in paragraph 14. If winners do not respond within 72 hours of being notified, the prize will be forfeited and National AIDS Trust reserves the right to offer the prize to a reserve winner/runner up. National AIDS Trust's decision will be final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
23. National AIDS Trust must publish or make available the information confirming that a valid winner was chosen. So that we can comply with this obligation, we will publish the winning name and artwork of the winner. By entering the competition, the winners agree to participate in such promotional activity and material as National AIDS Trust may require. Entrants agree that if they are the winner of the competition National AIDS Trust may use their name and artwork to announce them as winner of the competition.
24. Please read our privacy statement which tells you how we use any personal information we may collect about you by entering the competition: www.nat.org.uk/privacy-policy
25. All entrants in this competition will own the copyright to their artwork. By submitting an entry you agree to grant National AIDS Trust a perpetual, royalty free licence to use the artwork you have submitted, including the rights to use, reproduce, adapt, publish and create derivative works from it or incorporate the artwork (or any part of it) into other works in any media for such purposes as National AIDS Trust may decide in its discretion. Entrants also agree that they waive their moral rights.
26. National AIDS Trust will send the name and artwork of the winner to anyone who contacts us, within one month of the announcement date, requesting details of the winner.
27. If there is any reason to believe that there has been a breach of these terms and conditions, particularly in relation to paragraph 8, National AIDS Trust may, at its sole discretion, exclude your entry in the competition.
28. Nothing in these terms and conditions shall exclude National AIDS Trust's liability for death, personal injury, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation as a result of its negligence.

29. Insofar as is permitted by law, National AIDS Trust, its agents or distributors and the promoter will not in any circumstances be responsible or liable to compensate the winner or accept any liability for any loss, damage or disappointment occurring as a result of taking up the prize or for failure to win a prize except where it is caused by the negligence of National AIDS Trust, its agents or distributors. Your statutory rights are not affected.
30. National AIDS Trust reserves the right at any time to suspend, cancel, or amend the competition with or without prior notice due to reasons outside its control. In the event National AIDS Trust has to suspend, cancel or amend this competition under this paragraph, National AIDS Trust shall not be liable for any failure to comply with its obligations where such circumstances include, but not be limited to, weather conditions, fire, flood, strike, industrial dispute, war, political and civil unrest, riots, endemic, pandemic or any other circumstances amounting to force majeure.
31. National AIDS Trust reserves the right to amend these terms and conditions at any time. If we do this, we will publish the amended terms and conditions and/or specific terms on the competition page.
32. Entry into the competition will be deemed to constitute acceptance of these terms and conditions.

These terms and any matters relating to their content and/or subject matter shall be understood in accordance with and governed by English laws.
